Golden Service Awards: Liz Sargesson, Ian Anderson, Group Chief Operating Officer, Laura Andrei Supervisor

Name: Liz Sargesson

Position: Google Contract Manager

When did you commence work with Momentum Support?

I started work with Momentum Support in February 2018 on the Google site

How has COVID 19 impacted your role?

You realise that to show you care about your team is paramount during the pandemic. Alleviating their fears and keeping everything as normal as possible. It becomes much more personal and so vital to know you can rely on everyone. It is so important to acknowledge how their role has finally become one of the most important in the world!

What achievement are you most proud of?

In 2020- Bringing home the Golden Service award with Laura Andrei, Supervisor for the team and the company.

The perfect employee must have.

Good Personality, Commitment, Flexibility.

What are you most grateful for in the world today?

Grateful that there are people who care.

Name one thing about you that may surprise others?

I had nights out with George Michael while living in London (yes it was a few years ago!)

A quote from a Hero?

'mañana es otro día child'

'Tomorrow is another day' is something my hero mum has always said when she thought we needed to hear it.

One last remark Liz Sargesson

Getting to know people for who they really are and discovering their strengths can open any amount of possibilities for the team and the company. I consider myself lucky to have some amazing people to work with.
